Unit 500 - Assignment Brief

Assessment instructions

General guidance

This is a formal assessment for which the quality and accuracy of your work will be assessed. It is therefore important that you carry your work out to the highest standard you can. You should show how well you know and understand the subject and how you are able to use your knowledge and skills to complete the tasks below.

Tasks context

You may want to relate your answers to an organisation that you work in. This could include experience of working in a voluntary capacity. Alternatively, if you are not currently working within an organisation, or proposing to work in a freelance capacity, then you may complete the tasks in relation to an organisation with which you are familiar.

You should complete all of the following tasks in the order listed below. Each of the descriptions and explanations given should be detailed, correct and appropriate to your context.

Assignment tasks

You have been asked to present a report on the business rationale for Coaching and Mentoring, within either your organisation or one that you are proposing to work in, to the Senior Management Team (SMT). This report will help the SMT to further develop their understanding of the role of Coaching and Mentoring and its benefits to individuals, teams and the organisation as a whole.

There are some potential factors which would reduce the chance of success and the SMT has requested you to set out strategies for addressing how these potential factors can be addressed so that a successful programme can be achieved.

Provide an answer for ALL of the following tasks:

The opening section of your report demonstrates your ability to be able to apply knowledge and understanding of best practice to your current context.

As an introduction to the report, briefly outline the situation in which you either work or intend to work, as a Coach or Mentor.

- 1.1 Starting with definitions to base your evidence on for both coaching and mentoring, explain both their similarities and differences. You must provide a minimum of two similarities and two differences.
- 1.2 Provide an evaluation of how the organisational context affects coaching or mentoring, include at least three of these for either coaching or mentoring.
- 1.3 Present the business rationale for either coaching or mentoring, including at least two benefits to individuals and at least two benefits to organisations.
- 1.4 Make an assessment of how the impact of coaching and mentoring will be measured for both individuals and the organisation. Include at least one example of a measure for individuals and one example of a measure for the organisation
- 1.5 Looking ahead, identify at least two potential individual barriers and at least two potential organisational barriers to coaching or mentoring and develop strategies to overcome or minimise each of these potential barriers.

In the second section of your report, create a 'fit for purpose' training proposal that will support individuals in their development as an effective coach or mentor. This proposal may be based on the theoretical aspects required for aspiring coaches or mentors.

- 2.1 Review the required knowledge and skills and behaviours for future course content, in order for each individual to become an effective coach or mentor. Provide one referenced example for each of knowledge and skills and behaviours to support the review.

- 2.2 Communication skills are an essential part of the coaching and mentoring role, in order for the coach or mentor to be effective, conduct an analysis of the required communication skills, including at least four skills.
- 2.3 The report should include a review of the responsibilities of the coach or mentor to manage effective relationships in order to inform the job and role description of the coach or mentor. The report should also include how the coach or mentor remains ethical and non-judgmental.
- 2.4 Select and review a coaching or mentoring model that can be followed within an organisational context.
- 2.5 Provide a justification for reflective practice and individual and peer and group supervision as part of the ongoing professional development requirements of the coaches or mentors to ensure competent practice

In order to provide a pool of established coaches and mentors within the organisation, prepare the necessary guidance and documentation that will be used as part of the contracting process and ensure a consistent approach across the organisation.

- 3.1 Analyse the reasons for and the characteristics of an effective contracting process. Reference must be made to a membership body's code of practice to inform the analysis.
- 3.2 Provide an explanation of how to manage the coaching or mentoring process and include the main stages of the process, from initial contracting to final evaluation.

 - 2.2 Use of a coaching or mentoring diary to record sessions including review of progress against goals, summary discussion, techniques and questions used and outcomes or actions. Benefits of maintaining a diary to coach or mentor for reflective practice.
 - 2.3 Importance of, and methods of gathering feedback from client and tutor/supervisor of the coach or mentor to inform how practice can be improved.
 - 2.4 Reflective practice as a strategy for self-knowledge and improvement – concepts of the reflective practitioner. Reflection in action and on action.

Use of peer support, tutorials and supervision to aid reflection. Reflection should cover communication skills, knowledge and behaviour of the coach or mentor.

Assessment guidance

The learner must:

- 2.1 Provide evidence that they have undertaken and recorded effective coaching or mentoring within an organisational context for a minimum of 2 and maximum of 3 individuals of 18 hours in total in line with the professional practice requirements (eg ILM, EMCC, ICF, AC, etc.). This evidence should include session details such as date and duration. Records must be maintained of all coaching or mentoring activity undertaken.
- 2.2 Maintain comprehensive effective records of coaching or mentoring in the form of a coaching or mentoring diary to include goals, progress against goals, summary discussion, techniques and questions used, outcomes or actions and giving feedback to enable reflection on own coaching or mentoring performance in order to support ongoing professional development and practice. A comprehensive coaching or mentoring record will support the achievement of this unit. Records should enable the learner to reflect on their coaching or mentoring performance after each session.

- 2.3 Gather and evidence feedback from clients and tutor/supervisor to enable reflection on own coaching or mentoring performance in order to support own ongoing professional development and practice. The tutor/supervisor can be an experienced coach or mentor
- 2.4 Maintain evidence of own ongoing reflection in the format of a reflective log showing detailed reflection after each coaching or mentoring session including outcomes from supervision and client feedback. This log should record own reflections on the session overall, details of models, techniques and tools used, assessment of own skills in relation to questioning and listening, relationship management (remaining ethical and non-judgmental) and improvements for next session. It should also draw upon the feedback from the client and the tutor/supervisor. A reflective log should be maintained showing ongoing reflection after each session and include outcomes of supervision/tutorial observation and client feedback.

Learning outcome (LO 3)

The learner will:

- 3 Be able to demonstrate and evidence ongoing reflection and review of own coaching or mentoring practice

Assessment criteria

The learner can:

- 3.1 Reflect on each session and identify key learning to support continuous professional development
- 3.2 Justify the tools and techniques used during the coaching or mentoring
- 3.3 Use ongoing feedback on effectiveness of own coaching or mentoring for each session and show evidence of this, including a minimum of 1 hour of supervision feedback

Justification should include why the tool or technique was used for the session.

- 3.3 The purpose of gathering feedback on coaching or mentoring; communication skills, relationship building, questioning techniques, ability to follow a recognised process, behaviours to encourage openness and trust and the effectiveness of these in helping the client to achieve their goals. It must lead to effectiveness, not just a list of attributes.

Gather feedback on methods and practices for building effective relationships.

Gather feedback on communication skills and behaviours to encourage openness, honesty and trust, and their significance in coaching or mentoring.

Sources of feedback, supervisor/tutor, individual being coached/mentored, stakeholders etc. and collection processes (eg oral, written, questionnaires, individual(s), stakeholder, etc.)

- 3.4 Reflective practice as a strategy for self-knowledge and improvement.

Benefits of reflecting during the session and after the session (reflection in action and on action) covering, skills, knowledge and behaviours of the coach or mentor

Reflection should cover assessment of communication skills, knowledge and behaviour of the coach or mentor, concepts of the reflective practitioner, theory and behaviour.

Use of coaching or mentoring networks or peer support, tutorials and supervision to aid reflection

Assessment guidance

The learner must:

- 3.1 Complete a reflective log which evidences own personal reflection on each coaching or mentoring session and identification of actions and management of own continuous professional development across the full scope of the coaching or mentoring activity. This must be reviewed with own tutor/supervisor.
- 3.2 Justify the use of two or more tools and techniques used during the coaching or mentoring session, with the rationale for using them and how they supported the coaching or mentoring of the individual.
- 3.3 Gather evidence, which must include ongoing verbal or written feedback (eg notes from discussion, email or completed feedback template, etc.), to measure effectiveness (eg of building effective relationships, communication skills, etc.) Evidence of 1 hour of supervision feedback must be included.

- 3.4 Record own ongoing reflections after each session and assess own ability to use effective communication techniques including questioning, listening and giving feedback in order to facilitate coaching or mentoring practice.

Assessment requirements

This unit will be internally assessed through an ILM set portfolio of evidence which is marked by the centre and is subject to internal and external verification.

To pass this unit the evidence that the learner presents for assessment must demonstrate that they have met the required standard specified in the learning outcomes and assessment criteria. The unit will be assessed as pass/refer.

- 1.1 Evaluate the benefits of the coaching or mentoring undertaken. Consideration must be given to the outcomes reached against the initial objectives.
 - 1.2 Provide a reflection of own learning and development as a coach or mentor with a particular focus on own self-awareness, communication techniques (eg questioning, listening and giving feedback, etc.), relationship management, ethical behaviours and non-judgmental attitude.
 - 1.3 Undertake a wide-ranging evidenced-based assessment drawn from feedback and personal reflection, focusing on the knowledge, skills and behaviours, relationship management, ethical behaviours and non-judgmental attitude of an effective coach or mentor. Evidence collected from unit 501 or 502 must be used to assess own ability as a coach or mentor. The learner must indicate what has been learnt and what would be undertaken differently as a result of their learning.

Learning outcome (LO 2)

The learner will:

- 2 Be able to develop a plan for their future professional development in coaching or mentoring

Assessment criteria

The learner can:

- 2.1 Produce an in-depth SWOT analysis for their role as a coach or mentor
- 2.2 Produce a comprehensive personal development plan that covers a minimum duration of 12 months, detailing how this will support own development in coaching or mentoring

- 2.3 Explain how they will monitor and evaluate their own ongoing Continuing Professional Development (CPD) in relation to coaching or mentoring

Depth

- 2.1 In-depth SWOT analysis must be based on evidence produced
- 2.2 Develop a personal development plan for 12 months that is linked to coaching or mentoring aspirations with SMART objectives.
- 2.3 Evidence of ongoing monitoring and evaluation of CPD to ensure ongoing personal development and understanding of coaching or mentoring.
- Methods of monitoring and evaluation (eg Kirkpatrick, feedback from individuals, from coaching or mentoring practice networks, supervision, etc.)

Assessment guidance

The learner must:

- 2.1 Produce an in-depth SWOT analysis for own role as a coach or mentor primarily based on the review in Learning Outcome 1 and including references to self-awareness, communication techniques (including questioning, listening and giving feedback), relationship management, ethical behaviours and non-judgmental attitude. The learner must also include further knowledge, skills and behaviours that they would like to develop as a coach or mentor.
- 2.2 Develop a personal development plan that covers a minimum duration of 12 months which details how their ongoing development in coaching or mentoring will be supported. This plan must be linked to the learner's coaching or mentoring aspirations with SMART objectives.
- 2.3 Explain how own ongoing CPD will be monitored and evaluated

This unit requires learners to reflect on and evaluate their coaching or mentoring skills and allows evidence to be gathered from either units 501 or 502 as a basis for learner reflection and their future development as a coach.

Evidence for this unit is likely to come from naturally occurring activities within an organisational setting and may include (but is not restricted to):

- Products from the learner's work.
- Direct observation of the learner's performance by their assessor.
- Outcomes from oral or written questioning.

- Personal statements and/or reflective accounts.
- Professional discussion record.
- Authentic statements/witness testimony
- Analysis of practice
- Strengths and weaknesses analysis
- Evaluation of knowledge, skills
- Use of questioning and listening
- Evaluation of feedback from clients
- Feedback from tutorial/s supervision sessions actual evidence
- Conclusions on self-analysis and others
- Planning for personal development in the coaching or mentoring role
- Continuous Professional Development (CPD) Plan.
